Personal.

Mr. William Ennis is ill at his home on south Lee street.

Mrs. Mary Crump, who has been quite sick recently, is improving.

Mrs. John Callahan, 311 Duke street, has been confined to her bed for some days with sickness.

Miss Mamie L. Fleming, who has been very sick for some weeks, is improving.

Messrs. C. C. Carlin and James R. Caton, of Alexandria, will address the citizens of Manassas and vicinity on the issues of the present canvass in Nicol's hall on Thursday night, October 13.

Col. Edmund Berkeley, who was ill this summer with intermittent fever at his home in Prince William county, was in town Monday and was looking quite well. (Manassas Journal.)

Mr. Jas. H. McCuen, private secretary of Mr. Thos. Nelson Page, has returned from York Harbor, Me., where he spent the summer.

Capt. John S. Wise was in the city today, having come to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Manassas Safe Copper Mines Company.

Miss Annie Herbert left this week for Europe when she will remain for some time.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A young man, charged with selling liquor on Sunday and without a license, was dismissed.

Mamie Gentz, arrested by Officers Gill and Smith charged with using vulgar and abusive language toward Nellie Smallwood, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

Daniel Nelson, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with assaulting and beating Henry Munson, was fined $5.

John Jess, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with assaulting Alice Washington, was fined $2.50 and the woman $5, it appearing that she assaulted the defendant with bricks.

Opera House.

The comedians Conroy and Mack will open a week's engagement at Hill's Opera House next Monday night. As has been stated, a repertoire of successful plays will be produced, the opening bill being the war comedy drama "A Daughter of Cuba." Other plays to be produced during the week include "East Lynne," "Looking for a Wife," "Two Orphans," "The Major's Daughter," and "The Price of Shame." Conroy and Mack have spared no expense to make this season's attraction equal to any on tour and have engaged a large and expensive company. The two Vancos, who will appear, will offer a reward of $100 to any person producing a pair of handcuffs or shackles which they fail to remove. Special matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

Colored Masons.

The Supreme Council of the 33d degree (colored) Scottish Rite Freemasons, of the southern jurisdiction, will meet in Washington on October 16 and continue in session until October 18. The Imperial Council of the colored Shriners of the United States will meet on the 19th inst. in the 15th Street Presbyterian Church, near Thomas Circle, Washington. An interesting programme of exercises has been prepared for the occasion. Magnus L. Robinson, 33d degree, who is the official editor of the Supreme Council organ and Imperial recorder of the colored Shriners, will represent his different departments. He is now serving his fourth term as Imperial recorder.

Relic Returned.

One of the salt cellars of the old cut glass set belonging to Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, which with other pieces were scattered before and during the civil war, has been returned by Mr. Theodore Picard, of Harmony Lodge, No. 17, of Washington. The cellar was given to him by a great-granddaughter of Henry Rose, who was a member of Alexandria-Washington Lodge in 1804, and who was buried here February 6, 1810. His profile is among those of the members of the lodge in 1804, now preserved in a cabinet in the Masonic Temple in this city.

Big Time at Gainesville.

It is evident that democracy will have a big rally at Gainesville this afternoon (Saturday). It is announced positively that Gov. Montague, Lieut. Gov. Willard, Hon. John F. Rixey, and Messrs. A. A. Lipscomb, Robt. E. Lee, Jr., Lewis Machen, J. B. McCabe, R. Walter Moore, James R. Caton and others will be present and speak on the issues of the pending campaign. Hon. Thos. H. Lion will preside. (Manassas Journal.)

Accused Dismissed.

A young man who was charged with selling liquor without a license and on Sunday, and who surrendered himself to the police yesterday, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. There was no evidence to substantiate the charge, and the accused was dismissed. The offense was alleged to have been committed on the 18th of September in a house on the corner of Jefferson and Columbus streets.

Port Paraphs.

The tug Juno, owned by Mr. Park Agnew, which has been hauled out on the marine railway at the shipyard for two or three weeks having her hull rebuilt, has been put overboard and will be made ready for service.

The Weems Line steamer Northumberland has gone out of commission for a while and is laid up at the yard of the Baltimore Shipbuilding Company.

Registration.

As heretofore stated the registration books of this city will be open at the several voting precincts next Monday in order that those who have not heretofore registered, and who are eligible to vote in the presidential election in November may place their names on the lists.

Retail Merchants.

A meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association will be held on Monday night next at 8 o'clock, at which business of interest to the organization will be transacted. After the adjournment of the meeting a banquet will be given.

Swift Potatoes.

Mr. John Swift, whose farm is just across the river from this city, in Maryland, has finished digging his crop of sweet potatoes. During the season he will have his potatoes for sale at his stand in the city market and invites his old customers to give him a call.

Alexandria Hospital.

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 6, 1904.

"To Board of Managers of Alexandria Hospital."

I respectfully submit my report for the term of service beginning June 1, 1904, ending Sept. 30, 1904, during which time there were admitted 126 patients.

Results as follows: Cured, 78; sent to other institutions, 4; improved, 4; died 8; remaining under treatment, 32.

Respectfully submitted,
M. D. DELANEY, M. D.

Confession of a Priest.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began to use Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a relief medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons. Only 50c.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Important Schedule Change.

Southern Railway announces that Bluemont branch trains Nos. 115 and 116 and 129 and 130 will be withdrawn from service after October 8th and 9th, respectively; also $1.00 Sunday excursion tickets to Ashburn, Bluemont and intermediate stations will be withdrawn from sale after October 9, 1904.
